

Financial aid is offered to all eligible students. PacRim is approved and participates in the Title IV Federal Student Aid program. The university manages three categories of financial aid: (1) Federally funded grants and loans; (2) University scholarships; and (3) Private Donor scholarships.

- (1) Federally funded grants and loans; Federal financial aid is available to eligible students in the form of grants and loans:
  - Federal Pell Grant
  - FSEOG (Federal Secondary Educational Opportunity Grant)
  - Federal Direct Loans
  - Federal PLUS Loans
  - Federal Work Study

All undergraduate students are encouraged to submit a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) at FAFSA.GOV.

- (2) University scholarships - University scholarships supplement federal financial aid for students in need. The Po'okela scholarship for graduating high school seniors is funded from this award budget.
- (3) Private Donor scholarships - There are four scholarships that are funded annually by donors:
  - Charlie Soon Memorial Scholarship
  - Chenin Blanc Mun Fuung Iglowitz Scholarship
  - Kellie Ann Andrade Scholarship
  - Dr. Elizabeth Misao Keith International Scholarship

Private Donor Scholarship applications are made available before the start of the next Academic Year.

VA BENEFITS VA benefits are available to military veterans and their dependents. To apply for VA educational benefits students are encouraged to speak with their VA Education Counselor and visit the VONN App website: <http://www.vabenefits.vba.va.gov/vonapp/default.asp>
