

In the Master of Global Leadership program, students will develop their faith, knowledge, and skills so that they can lead in the public arena with a global perspective, whether it be in politics and government or international business and nonprofit organizations.

Bible (9 semester hours)

- BI6303 Exploring the Bible
- BI6307 A Breviary of Theology
- BI6350 Hermeneutics

Philosophy, Politics and Economics (18 semester hours)

- PE6301 Political Thought & Theory
- PE6302 American Politics & Government
- PE6303 Economics: Principles & Praxis
- PE6304 International Relations
- PE6305 Understanding Cultures & Worldviews
- PE6306 Comparative Political Systems

Global Leadership (9 semester hours)

- ML6302 The Christian Leader
- GL6321 Rhetoric & Communication
- GL6322 Capstone Project

Electives (12 semester hours – Choose Four)

- PE6310 Politics & Society in the Two Koreas
- PE6311 The Korean Peninsula: An American Concern
- PE6312 Modern World History
- PE6313 Study of War & Peace
- PE6314 Issues Within American Politics & Society
- PE6315 International Economic Development
- PE6316 Sociology & Anthropology
- PE6330-9 Selected Topics
- Selected Topics in Philosophy, Politics & Economics

The program is taught by Christian faculty members who have lived and taught all over the world. For more information about the program, visit pacrimleadership.com