

The Associate of Arts in Christian Ministry Program

The Associate of Arts in Christian Ministry will empower students to grow in devotion to God and be equipped to serve Him in ways that are both biblically sound and culturally relevant.

What You Will Learn?

If you are an active member in your Christian church with a strong desire to lead people into an authentic, life-changing relationship with Jesus Christ, you may want to consider pursuing an Associate of Arts degree in Christian Ministry. This degree program equips students to transform their communities by growing a deeper theological and doctrinal mindset along with developing practical ministry skills.

Throughout this program, you will experience genuine community in a culturally diverse setting while strengthening your ministry effectiveness. You will gain foundational knowledge and skills to serve with excellence and simplicity, whether it be in the marketplace or the church. You will also be provided the tools needed to apply the truths of God to the needs of people through learning the content and teachings of Scripture, dynamics of character and faith formation, leadership, the heart and art of worship, teachings and doctrines of the church, and historical Christian traditions and practices.

What You Can Do With This Degree?

Associate of Arts
AA-CM

The Associate of Arts in Christian Ministry will prepare you to effectively serve and minister in various lay positions in the church which may include roles such as youth leader/pastor, church planter, missionary, children's ministry worker or director, worship leader, and church administrator.
